

Wine and Cheese Tasting with

JEROBOAMS

Wednesday 17th January 2007 from 7.30pm
Hosted by the Carlton Club – 69 St James' Street

Banish the winter blues and start 2007 as you mean to go on with an evening of tutored wine and cheese tasting presented by Richard Grenfell-Hill, Associate Director, Jeroboams.

Using the expertise of the Jeroboams affineur, who selects and individually matures cheeses, a selection of cheeses will be tasted with a range of fine wines to allow you to assess if cheese and wine really are a match made in heaven.
